

Be careful around downed conductors.

Keep away, and keep the public away.

Wires can become energized at any time.

If energized, a downed wire can create deadly touch and step potentials. Keep away and wear insulated footwear. Use proper barricading to keep the public away.

Scan the QR code for a short video on hazards around downed wires.

